

Workshop on "Global Innovation Networks"

4 May 2011

CEDEPLAR-UFMG

Av. Antônio Carlos, 6627 - Belo Horizonte, MG - Auditório I

09:00-09:30	Welcome and introduction	Reynaldo Maia Muniz (Faculty of Economics, UFMG, Director)
		Alireza Naghavi (FEEM, INGINEUS coordinator)
09:30-11:00	Global Innovation Networks (GINs) and Multinational Corporations (MNCs)	Silvana Rizzioli (FIAT)
		Andrea Goldstein (OECD) "The internationalization of innovation, the role of MNEs and the place of Brazil"
		Paulo de Matos (R&D Department, FIAT)
		Guilherme Machado (Fiat Powertrain FPT)
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:30	Global Innovation Networks (GINs) and external sources of collaboration	Leonardo Guerra (Ministry of Development, Industry and Foreign Trade, Brazil)
		Maria Comune (FEEM) "The role of IPRs in the anchorage of GINs in emerging economies"
		Jorge Ávila (INPI) "Multinationals and intellectual property in Brazil"
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:30	Global Innovation Networks (GINs) and public policies	Heidi Wiig Aslesen (NIFU-STEP) "Sectoral differences in innovation dynamics and GIN"
		Mauro Borges Lemos (ABDI) "Policies for industrial development in Brazil"
		Evaldo Vilela (SECTES) "Initiatives from the state of Minas Gerais"
15:30-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-17:00	Open session for the University: INGINEUS main results	Glenda Kruss (HSRC) "Local-global linkages between universities, public labs and firms"
		Helena Barnard (GIBS) "Global innovation networks – how global, innovative and networked are they?"

(Haverá tradução simultânea para as 70 primeiras pessoas)